Prosecution in Federal Court Trial
Lays Foundation to Show Many
Notes Were Forgeries

BANKERS ARE WITNESSES

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23—The attack of the government in the trial of Governor McCray on trial in federal court on charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud, was concentrated today on the character of the paper offered by the governor as collateral for the loans or for discount to banks.

The prosecution was laying the foundation to introduce evidence intended to show that many of the notes did not represent legitimate business transactions and that in many cases the notes were forgeries. Questions asked banker witnesses by District Attorney Elliott revealed that they did not know the "cattle paper" offered for discount by the governor was in reality his own obligation.

Repeatedly Elliott asked these questions:

"When you took this paper did you have any knowledge that Warren T. McCray was the sole owner of the farms whose names appeared on it?"

"Did you know the note was in fact his own obligation?"

"Did you have any knowledge that the note was executed by McCray and did not represent any actual transaction?"

In practically every instance witnesses answered in the negative, indicating they thought the names on the notes were those of bonifide companies, who had bought cattle from McCray.

Scores of additional letters written to banks by McCray were placed in evidence today by District Attorney Elliott.

Many of the letters written by the governor represented to the banks that he had on hand notes which he had taken for the sale of cattle and that he had carefully investigated the makers and found them financially responsible.

L. K. Tingley, cashier of the First National bank of Connersville, testified that in answer to letters from the governor his bank had discounted a $4,000 note signed "Hickory Island Stock Farm."

He said he had no knowledge that the governor owned the farm. The indebtedness had been cut in half in two payments, Tingley said.

More than 100 bankers were sworn in as witnesses for the government as court opened today.

The bankers were sworn in a

FEW NEW CASES ARE FILED

Evidence was heard in the circuit court this morning on a case on a note against George F. Billings, Union township farmer, who is reported to be missing, following the filing of several suits. In this case Joseph Collier was given judgment by default for the amount of $1,606.70 and costs.

A few other court cases have been filed, one being a complaint on a note, filed by Elvora Metzler against Harvey F. Brown and Carrie C. Brown, and the demand is for $375 judgment.

The Mohawk State Bank of Hancock county has brought suit against John Ed Laughlin, et al., in which the action is proceedings supplementary to execution, following a decree obtained in court recently by the plaintiff against the defendants.

A petition has been filed by Mary O. Hill in which she asks that her name be changed to Mary O. Overman, and in the action no reason or cause is set out for the desired change of name.

MERCURY BELOW FREEZE

Heavy Frost Not Believed to Have
Damaged Fruit Crop

A heavy frost was reported for last night, when the mercury dropped to 28 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, in charge of the government station at Maunzy.

Although the frost was unusually heavy for this time of the year, it will be several days before the damage can be estimated. The question as to how far advanced fruit and other buds were, when the frost occurred, could not be definitely determined today. It is the belief, however, that the frost did not do serious damage to the fruit crop. Warmer weather is the prediction tonight, with partly cloudy skies.

The case of Blackledge against Low, a suit for possession of real estate in Union township, was dismissed and the costs paid.

The court found for the relator in the case of the state on relation of Samantha Kanell against Fred Lucas, a paternity proceedings, and the defendant was bound over to the circuit court for trial, with bond being furnished in the sum of $500.

"Daddy Long Legs" Will Have Premier Before Elementary Grades
Thursday Afternoon

RESERVED SEATS ON SALE

A special performance of "Daddy Long Legs," the Rushville high school senior class play, will be given Thursday afternoon at the Graham Annex auditorium for the school children of the city.

The children of the elementary grades have been among the most ardent boosters of the senior play, which will be presented at the auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings for the general public.

The reserved seat plat was opened up Tuesday and the advance reservations indicate considerable interest in the seniors' annual effort to offer a play.

The seniors are grateful, a representative of the class said today, to the school children for the support they have given and feel certain that their attendance Thursday afternoon will be an inspiration to the east.

"Daddy Long Legs" is not new, having appeared first serially in a magazine, and later was dramatized with great success. Its human appeal and wholesome humor make it popular with audiences.

J. O. Brisson, trustee of the Waldron church, appeared as a witness for the state. In the first trial he testified for the defense.

PINCHOT NOT ON DELEGATION

Harrisburg, Pa., April 23—Governor Pinchot and his issue of liquor law enforcement were snowed under in the Pennsylvania primary.

Pinchot was defeated for a place on the list of seven Republican delegates at large by Ralph B. Strassburger, millionaire owner of the Norristown Herald, who two days before election received full support of Republican organizations in Philadelphia, Allegheny and other large counties.

President Coolidge is now assured of the solid delegation of 79 votes from the Keystone state at the Cleveland convention.

For the first time in the memory of the oldest elector, Pennsylvania has failed to send its governor to the national convention of the party

Participate in May 3 Meeting

Representatives of all patriotic organizations in the city are invited to attend the meeting of the G. A. R. on Saturday, May 3, to assist in making arrangements for Memorial Day plans. The Civil War veterans are rapidly decreasing in number, and there are not enough left to go forward with the plans as in the past and all patriotic organizations have been asked to lend their support and unite in decorating the graves and in arranging a suitable program May 30.

The meeting with the G. A. R. will be held at three o'clock in the Grand Army room of the court house a week from Saturday, and it is important that all societies send delegates.

HELD PASTORATES IN RUSH COUNTY

The Rev. James L. Brown, Veteran
Methodist Episcopal Church Pastor,
Dies in Shelbyville

ORDAINED AT MANILLA IN 1891

Services Will be Held at Shelbyville
and Manilla Thursday Morning—
Burial at Benton Cemetery

The Rev. James L. Brown, pastor of the Main St. M. E. church in Shelbyville, and a former pastor of the Milroy, Arlington and Manilla M. E. churches, died Tuesday at his late residence in Shelbyville, following a several weeks illness with uraemic poisoning.

During the last thirty four years the Rev. Mr. Brown had been in the ministry, and on several occasions conducted revival services and evangelistic campaigns in all parts of the state. He had served in many churches and received the appointment to the Shelbyville charge at the last M. E. conference.

He was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, on December 21, 1851, and at the time of his death he was 72 years old. In 1866 he moved to Shelby county with his parents, taking up residence near Manilla. Here he completed his education and became a teacher in the public schools in Warren county, Illinois. In 1880 he was elected Sheriff of Shelby county serving two years, and in 1890 he entered the ministry.

He was ordained at the Manilla quarterly conference by the Rev. Mr. Sargent in 1891 and was appointed to assist the Rev. Thomas Ayers in ministerial work at Waldron, Winchester, Geneva, Manilla and Arlington. Later he was appointed to the Milroy Circuit to assist the Rev. Mr. Hester and later was sent to Clarksburg for his first charge. After serving a year at Metamora he left that charge to enter the evangelistic field. After two years of this work he returned to Metamora and the next several years he served at Falmouth, Laurel, St. Paul, Winchester, Clarksburg and his last charge in Shelbyville.

The Rev. Brown is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Effie Linville of Anderson, Ind.; two sons, Murdock Brown of Union township, Shelby county, and the Rev. C. C. Brown of Laurel; sixteen grandchildren and five great grand children. His wife preceded him in death two years ago.

Funeral services will be held at nine o'clock Thursday morning at the Main St. M. E. church in Shelbyville with the Rev. E. H. Boldre, the Rev. L. C. Murr, the Rev. R. O. Pearson and Rev. Mr. Burkher, pastors of the M. E. churches in the Shelbyville community, officiating. The body will then be taken to the Manilla M. E. church where services will be held at eleven o'clock in charge of the Rev. John Scull. Burial will be made in Benton cemetery.

F. R. POUNDSTONE FUNERAL

The funeral services for E. B. Poundstone, who died early Tuesday morning at his home, 705 North Harrison street, will be held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the St. Paul's M. E. church, in charge of the Rev. H. W. Harrold, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the late residence to view the remains, up until the hour of the funeral.

ORGANIZATION IS COMPLETED HERE

Township Chairmen and Women Precinct
Chairmen of Coolidge-For-
President Campaign Appointed

PREPARATION FOR PRIMARY

Little Evidence of Approaching Vote,
Although County Candidates Are
Making Canvass

Although President Coolidge is not expected to have much opposition in the Indiana primary election, which will be held Tuesday, May 6, organizations are being perfected in each county of the state, and Russell Tittsworth, Rush county manager of the Coolidge-For-President campaign, today announced that his organization had been completed.

He has appointed a man chairman for each township and Miss Lena Buell, who was selected as woman county chairman, has announced the selection of a Coolidge woman manager in each precinct of the county.

Mr. Tittsworth has a supply of Coolidge buttons, pictures and literature in his office at the Miller law building and will be glad to supply any who will call for them.

Although the primary is not far away, very few manifestations of the approaching vote are apparent. Public meetings have been few and far between, but candidates for places on the county tickets have been making a diligent canvass.

Interest in the primary, outside of the county races, centers in the gubernatorial battle on both tickets, in Indiana. Unlike the contest four years ago, very little interest is being taken in the presidential contest for delegates, in view of the fact that Senator Johnson of California, who is Coolidge's only opponent in Indiana, is not offering much opposition.

Mr. Tittsworth announced today that he had appointed the following township chairmen; Robert E. Mansfield, Rushville; Hal Green, Jackson; Fred A. Bills, Washington; J. Blaine Reeve, Noble; Lloyd A. Waggoner, Orange; John T. Bowles, Center; Edgar Thomas, Anderson; Lee H. May, Posey; Jesse Henley, Ripley; Thomas K. Mull, Walker; Vincent Gray, Union; George T. Keisling, Richland.

The women precinct chairmen named are as follows:

Ripley—No. 1, Mrs. R. H. Hill, Carthage; No. 2, Mrs. Daisy Manche, Carthage; No. 3, Mrs. Leona B. Ball, Carthage.

Posey—No. 1, Mrs. Lettie Woods, Arlington; No. 2, Mrs. N. R. Farlow, Arlington.

Walker—No. 1, Mrs. Alba Hurst, Rushville, R. 5; No. 2, Amy E. Fox, Manilla.

DOORS OF ASYLUM ARE OPENED TO HARRY THAW

After Period of 7 Years Incarceration in Mad House, He is Judged
Sane by a Jury

OPPONENTS TO TAKE APPEAL

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Philadelphia, April 23—Once more the doors of the asylum swing open for Harry Kendall Thaw.

After a period of seven years incarceration in a Philadelphia mad house, Thaw has been adjudged sane by a jury of his peers and probably soon will be free.

The jury that heard the six day trial of his petition for release from Kirkbride's asylum was out for nearly seven hours late Tuesday before they returned with their verdict for the millionaire plaintiff.

Notice of motion of appeal for a new trial was immediately given by parties opposing freedom for Thaw and this technicality will slightly delay complete freedom for Harry.

The first act of the eccentric millionaire who has seven times been found insane and now thrice sane since he shot Stanford White to death on Madison Square Garden roof 18 years ago will be to clear away the one criminal charge pending against him, a New York indictment for perverted assault upon young Frederick Gump of Kansas City.

ATTACK CENTERS ON McCRAE PAPER

group. They comprised the bulk of the court room crowd.
In rapid succession, District Attorney called the banker witnesses to the stand and quizzed them briefly on their loans to McCray and his efforts to get them to discount "cattle paper" for him.

Witnesses were subjected to little cross examination by attorneys for McCray. The defense was apparently preparing to rely upon the theory that the governor did not intend to commit a fraud in his negotiations with the banks.

Whenever possible, James Noel, attorney for McCray, attempted to bring out that the original indebtedness of the governor to the bank had been reduced or wiped out.

This was taken to be the foundation for an argument that the intent to commit a fraud was lacking.

District Attorney Elliott introduced in evidence correspondence between the governor and the Peoples' State Bank of Evansville, which had been identified Tuesday by M. Schaefer, assistant cashier of the bank.

The correspondence showed that the bank had received a circular letter from McCray offering "good cattle paper" and had discounted two personal notes for the governor, each for $5,000. As collateral for the loans, McCray gave notes of the A. E. Herriman Co. and H. A. Rinehart & Co.

According to the correspondence, McCray represented the Rinehart company as being worth "at least $50,000" and the Herriman company as being worth $80,000.

H. A. Kohl, cashier of the Citizens' Bank of Letz, Ind., said his bank holds two notes of $5,000 each signed by McCray.

F. B. Bernard president of the Merchant's National Bank at Muncie, said McCray's "circular letters" resulted in a loan of $5,000 on a personal note.

From each banker District Attorney Elliott obtained a story of the negotiations leading up to the discounting of McCray paper that varied only in minor details from the story of preceding bankers.

McCray wrote letters to bankers, according to the testimony, informing them he had a number of cattle notes for the sale of fine cattle.

The McCray letters to the bankers declared the notes were amply secured. In most cases the notes were made payable to the governor and indorsed by him.

If the bank sought further information as to the security for the paper, it was revealed that McCray sent out financial statements in which indicated his worth was nearly $1,000,000 and that of his customers whose names appeared on the cattle notes from $50,000 to $150,000.

Some of the bankers said they accepted the McCray paper on promise of getting a deposit of state funds and others admitted that political friendship for the Governor led them to accept the paper without investigation.

Some of the letters indicated the banks were anxious to get some of McCray's paper.

A letter from the officials of the state bank at Grand View said: "We are indeed sorry that owing to local demands we are unable to take more than $5,000 of your paper. Perhaps after the harvest time when local demand has eased up, we can take more."

John W. Johnson, of the Peoples State Bank at Patriot, Ind., indicated that work on a road near Patriot by the state highway commission had figured in the bank's transactions with McCray.

In a letter to McCray consenting to the renewal of a loan, Johnson urged McCray to have the state highway commission start work immediately on the highway.

McCray at one time was indebted to the Chicago Trust company to the extent of $100,000 on his personal notes, according to Max Snider, vice president of the Chicago bank.

Gilbert A. Reek, treasurer of the Harris Trust and Savings company of Chicago, said McCray had also borrowed $100,000 from his bank at one time.

DEGREE TEAM IS PRAISED

A very successful meeting was held by Tannah Tribe of Red Men, of this city, Tuesday night, when a class of candidates was adopted by the Gwynneville degree staff, which is regarded as the best in the state. Members of Tannah tribe and guests highly praised the work of the visiting degree staff and said that it was the best they had ever seen.

Ed Mabce of Connersville, past great sachem, with a large delegation from Otomah tribe, was present for the work. Two past great sachems of Tannah tribe, Miles S. Cox, and O. C. Norris, also witnessed the work.

A splendid evening was enjoyed, which closed with refreshments and a smoker, and brief talks by past great chiefs.

The Constitution

The national oratorical contest for high schools and secondary schools, which is being held in all parts of the United States, beginning with county contests and progressing into district, territorial, state and zone contests, until the winner is eventually selected in a final event in Washington, is proving of value not alone to the contestants, who are limited to a discussion of the constitution, but to those who have had an opportunity of hearing the orations.

Anything that arouses interest in or a desire to study the constitution of the United States is commendable.

The entrants in the contest, in preparing their orations, no doubt had some difficulty in interpreting the basic law of the land.

They found that the constitution provides for three branches of government—legislative, judicial and executive. The authority of each is clearly defined.

But if they have been following the news from Washington, they probably concluded that the three branches of government now are investigative, judicial and executive.

They doubtless recalled that one school of thought advocates a law which will give congress authority to pass legislation even though it is declared unconstitutional by the United States supreme court.

The youthful orators were probably very much confused trying to square up the terms of the constitution with the trend of affairs in the present day.

But they expounded the constitution, its glorious success in piloting a republic through dangerous waters for nearly a century and a half, and its value as an ever-present, dependable friend in perilous times.

The young students will have performed a very valuable service if they influence any considerable number of people to study the constitution and to come to some appreciation of the part it has had in making this the greatest nation in the world.

Their battle to nullify the Volstead act, and eventually the eighteenth amendment, is now centered in congress where there are no less than fifty-nine bills pending.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Cal Coolidge is no fan. The "great national game" of baseball leaves him "cold."

That was evident to all present on the occasion of the opening of the American League season at the Washington ball park.

Coolidge complied with the tradition that the first ball of the first game in Washington must be tossed out by the president. But he did it with an expression and a gesture that indicated the job was the most distasteful he had yet been called upon to perform as chief executive. If hurling a horseshoe sphere out into a ball park, while a crazy mob of screaming lunatics looks on, was a daily part of the presidential routine, well—we'll bet Calvin Coolidge wouldn't run for reelection.

Coolidge's discomfiture as he stood up to throw the ball was plain. He not only didn't grin, he didn't even smile.

He went at it as an unpleasant, rather undignified proceeding that had to be done through with, but which he didn't enjoy or even approve.

Instead of tossing the ball out snappily, he sort of pushed it away from him with an overhead gesture, much as Caesar might have spurned the crown.

And then, with the home team winning, Cal up and left in the middle of the third inning!

THOUGH Coolidge may not warm to baseball, he does seem to be onto the curves of that other great national pastime, politics.

Already his campaign managers claim to have about 500 of the necessary 556 delegates to the Republican convention roped and tied.

So cocksure are his boosters of a walkaway for him at Cleveland that they are suggesting having the president drop in on the convention in person, receive direct notification of his nomination and deliver his speech of acceptance and campaign keynote on the spot.

Such a procedure, however, doesn't seem quite to fit in with the Coolidge character. It would be rather too spectacular, too great a departure from custom and precedent. Doubtless it might be good strategy, it might disclose him as less "cautious" and "careful" than he has often been pictured, might humanize him and help start the battle with a bang, but our guess is Coolidge will receive the "news" of his nomination through press reports relayed to the executive office.

POETICALLY inclined persons are convinced that the action of Congress in passing the Japanese exclusion act just when it did proves conclusively that our legislators have no souls.

"The very day the vote was taken which precipitated all the discussion of 'grave consequences,' the Japanese cherry trees along the Speedway and around the tidal basin burst into full bloom.

These cherry trees, a gift from the mikado to the government of the United States some 20 years ago, have done more than any other single thing to beautify the national capital. Their masses of delicate pink blossoms make a veritable fairyland of the capital in springtime.

Perhaps the exclusion act was all right. Perhaps it was proper that it should be passed.

But to pass it in cherry blossom time, when the beauty and fragrance of Japan's gift to us was in itself a plea for harmony, an invitation to peace—ah, surely that revealed us as a nation of materialists, shorn of souls and sentiment!

MAMIE WILLIAMS, of Savannah, Ga., will have the distinction of being the first colored woman delegate ever to sit in a national convention. She will sit in the Georgia delegation at Cleveland.

Indications are there will be a big apple crop this year. If nothing happens there won't be enough jugs and bottles to hold it.

Everything has its place. Flies keep lots of people from just sitting around doing nothing.

Bartenders should make good umpires, being used to bottles.

Teeth are nice things. If you had no teeth what would you grit when your new spring shoes hurt?

As the weather grows warmer dresses become more scant. By August all left of them will be the outskirts.

Not a single case of a woodpecker lighting on a camper's head has been reported so far.

Many a wife wonders if hubby has gone fishing for speckled beauties or for freckled beauties.

The average man's idea of high-brow music is a phonograph record with something on only one side.

With so many men working for the presidential candidates it looks like a great year for the cigar stores.

Spring makes everybody want to be somewhere else, even after they get there.

Every auto driver oughta charge his mind with the thought that the only man who ever had any great amount of success imitating lightning, is dead.

NEWSY GOSSIP IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Spring Training Money Maker

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 23—Support of the major league exhibition games was so generous in the south this spring that the magnates, finding such business, may be wondering, "how long has this been going on?"

The idea of arranging a few games during the training season between clubs situated in the same locality was prompted by the desire to help pay the expenses of getting old soup bones warm and in finding out how many of the scouts were wrong in picking phenoms from the minors.

The opportunity of seeing some of the big league stars in the flesh right in their own backyard proved so attractive to the customers in the southern and middle-western town that the magnates found they could not only get in the clear on their training camp expenses, but that they had the opportunity of making money by parading their athletes in unofficial combat.

Recently in this column it was suggested that the success of the haphazard venture into new fields would result in an organized effort to make a big thing out of spring baseball and might eventually reach a stage where the regular championship schedule would be opened in the south and played on an itinerant schedule until the weather was settled sufficiently to open the parks of the regular league schedules.

John A. Heydler, president of the National League, commenting on the subject a few days ago, said it was possible that the regular season might be extended at some time in the future to provide for regular games in the south, but that it was improbable.

He suggested, however, that the major league club owners were certain to organize a better schedule of southern games next spring and to make more serious efforts to give the southern fans a real major league baseball. It is possible, he said, that the major league club owners may get together next winter and draw up a real schedule for the spring games.

It is Mr. Heydler's idea that a real schedule can be arranged, because so many permanent training camps are being established by the magnate in Florida and for the reason that these camps are being pitched in groups where traveling expenses can be reduced to a minimum.

The idea that some of the smaller cities might become fed up on exhibition baseball was not borne out this year, when, in several instances, the same cities were visited by three and four "sets" of touring teams. The games all drew generous support.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

Boston—Tanzy Norton, Boston, won a 10 round decision from Bob Lowery, Scotch welterweight.

Chicago—Dave Shade, eastern welter who is now in the west to meet Morrie Schaliffer at Omaha Friday night, is carded to fight Warmie Smith at East Chicago May 5.

Chicago—Bud Taylor, Terre Haute scrapper has been picked by Steve Harter, promoter, as one of the principals in a battle at Indianapolis May 29. Harter is here looking for an opponent for Taylor.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

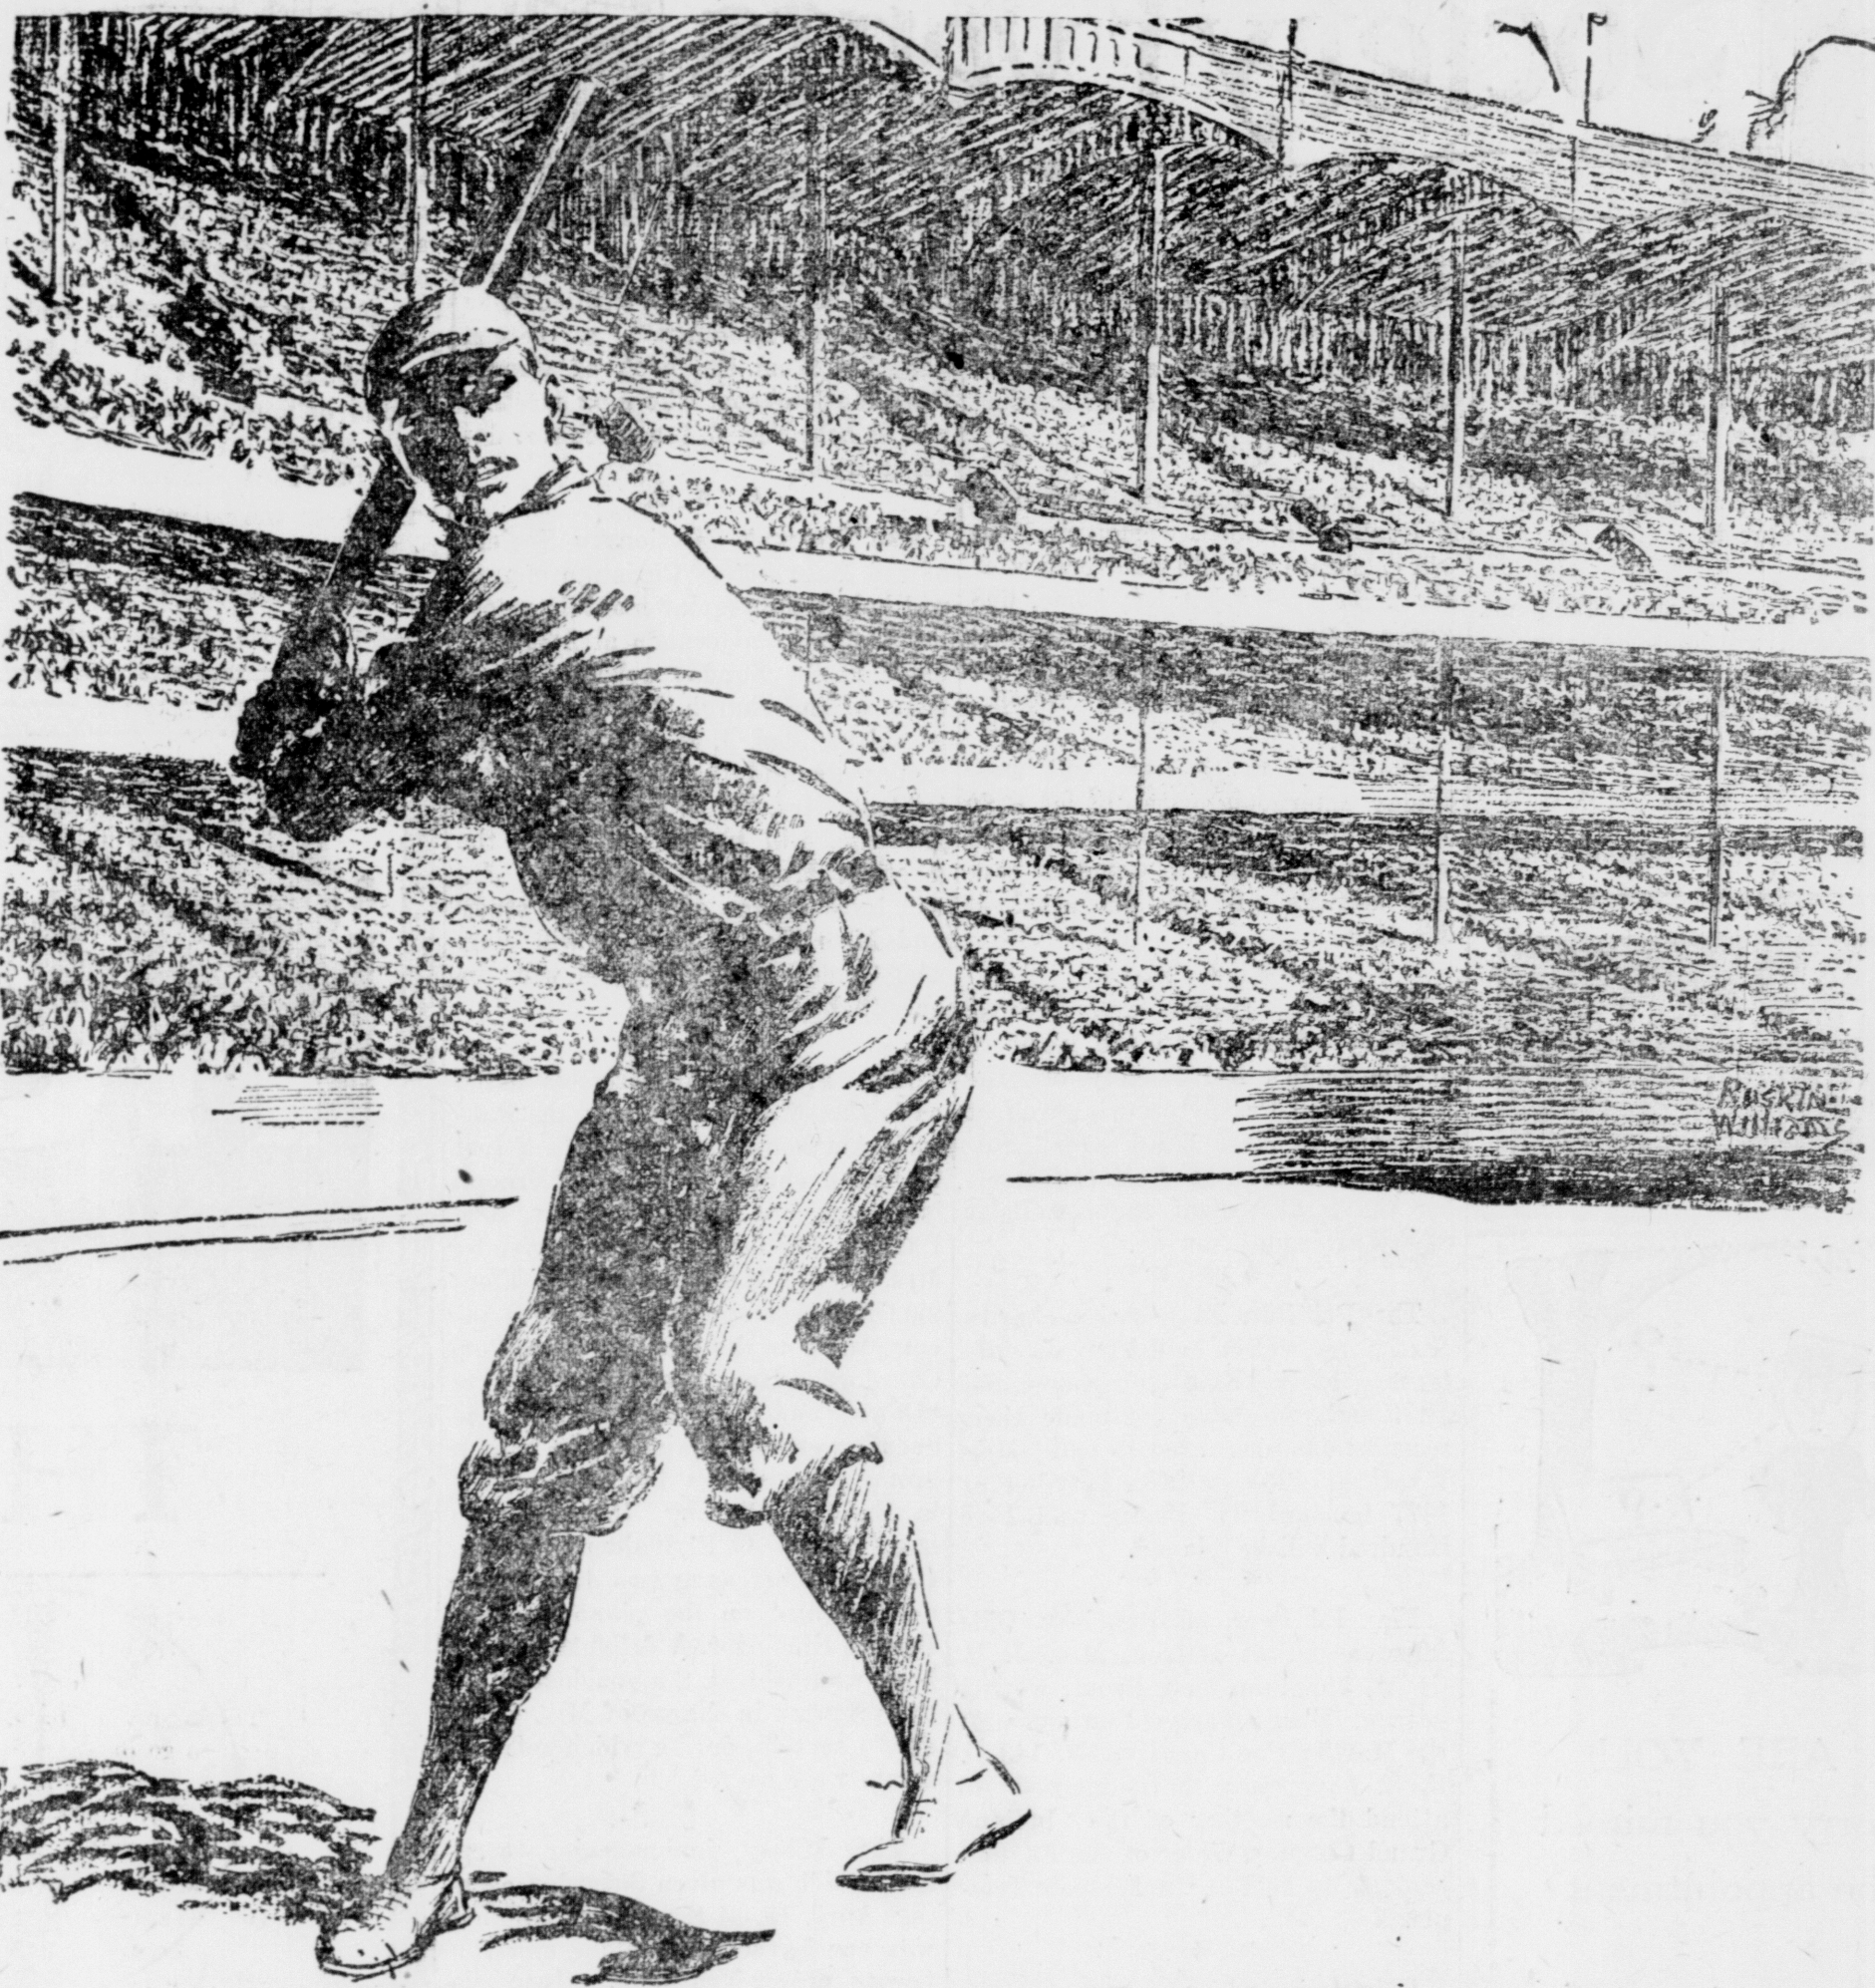

Yesterday's Hero: Sherry Smith. The veteran pitcher singled in the tenth inning with two down and drove in the run that beat the White Sox, 7 to 6.

Two errors by Sam Rice let in four runs and helped the Yanks beat the Senators 6 to 3.

Six runs scored in the fourth inning on a triple with the bases filled, a double and a homer gave the Pirates six runs and a 10 to 7 victory over the Cards. Hornsby got two homers.

Three runs scored on a rally in the fifth inning gave the Reds a 3 to 2 victory over the Cubs.

Behind the tight pitching of Earl Whitcomb, Detroit's sensational young pitcher, the Tigers beat the Browns 8 to 4.

Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck. How well the big stars of baseball know this. And in merchandising as in baseball, big success is scored only by deserving it. A product, too, must "deliver the goods."

GIANTS, TIGERS SETTING THE PACE

New York, April 23—McGraw's Giants and the Detroit Tigers are now setting the pace in the major league pennant race. Both clubs are in first place after having won five out of their six games.

The Giants have been playing the best ball in the National League and they have been getting all the breaks. Four of their five games were won by rallies in the ninth which goes to show that the champions are having no easy time against eastern opposition that is none too formidable.

Fine pitching and the timely hitting for which the club has always been noted, have helped the Detroit Tigers get out in front in the American league. Ty Cobb seems to have picked up one of the best pitchers in the business in young Earl Whitehill. It was this youngster who was mostly responsible for the success of the Tigers in finishing second last year.

Before the season started it was reported that Rigney, the young Detroit shortstop, had developed a bad hip and that he would be unable to play this season. If the form that he has been showing so far is the result of a bad hip, Cobb probably wishes that he had two of them.

The Tigers were also judged to be weak at second base, where the veteran Del Pratt worked last season. Pratt has been playing the greatest game of his career this season, but he may slump before the mid-season has been passed.

McGraw is having all the breaks with the iGiants. He has a game ball club that is full of fight but they can't go on forever knocking off the ball games in the ninth inning. When they get the strong western clubs, they will have to do more than they have been doing against the Robins and the Braves.

There will be a card party given by the Knights of Columbus Thursday evening at their lodge rooms in West Second street.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church will hold their regular monthly business meeting Thursday afternoon at the church. All the ladies are requested to be present for this meeting.

Miss Mary Estelle Compton, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Compton, will go to Laurel, Ind., this afternoon where she will give a group of readings and musical monologues before the Parent-Teachers meeting this evening.

Mrs. Eunice Moor, who is probably Rushville's oldest woman resident will celebrate the 93d anniversary of her birth Friday, at her home, 608 North Main street, with an informal reception, and all of her friends are invited to call during the afternoon.

The Delphian Society will meet Friday afternoon promptly at 2:30 o'clock at the Elks club rooms. All members are urged to come as several matters will be discussed at this time.

Mrs. Jesse Logan was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Ladies Aid Society of the First United Presbyterian church at her home in West Third street. Following the regular business meeting the ladies spent the remainder of the afternoon sewing.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority charity card party will be held Thursday afternoon at the Elks club rooms and all those who have not made their reservations are urged to call Miss Wyatt at 1261 or Miss Haydon at 1477 immediately. Bridge and Five Hundred will be played.

Mrs. Ed Beer, matron, Mrs. Ollie Siler, assistant matron, Mrs. J. P. Guffin, chaplain, Verl Beout, worthy patron, Mrs. Charles Newhouse of the Martha Poe Chapter, No. 143 O. E. S. have gone to Indianapolis to attend the meeting of the Indiana Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held at the Masonic Temple.

Thirty, including seven guests, were present for the Always Present Class meeting held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, Jr., living southwest of the city, with Mrs. Forrest Moore as the hostess. At 6:30 o'clock a bountiful pitch-in supper was served and enjoyed by all present. During the business session plans were made for a benefit show to be given at the Castle theatre, May 21 and 22, entitled "The Man From Brodneys", a screen adaptation from the book of George Barr McCutcheon. The next meeting will be held May 6, the place not decided upon.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Sunday school department of the church. The state vice president, Mrs. J. B. Pearsey of Indianapolis and the district superintendent, Mrs. W. B. Barker of Connersville, will be present for the meeting. Mrs. John P. Frazee, Jr., will have charge of the Bible study and Miss Florine Gronier will sing. The Golden Jubilee pledges will be accepted at this time.

Mrs. Florence Abercrombie acted as leader of the meeting of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church Tuesday afternoon in the absence of the president, Mrs. Parrish. The devotional was given by Mrs. Myrtle Matlock and Miss Florine Gronier sang a group of solos accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Carl Overdorf. Her selections were "Dawn" and "Break of Day". The guests were entertained also with a group of readings by Miss Luella Butler. Following the business meeting Mrs. C. E. Walden and Mrs. Carl Overdorf sang two duets being accompanied on the piano by Miss Brenda Kinsinger. A delightful social hour was held at the conclusion of the program in charge of Mrs. Overdorf's section, during which refreshments were served.

The Milroy junior-senior reception, which was given Saturday evening, April 19, at the school building, was one of the most unique and elaborate ever given here. Upon the arrival of the guests they were shown into small dressing rooms beautifully furnished and dimly lighted where they removed their wraps. They then assembled in the long hallway which was decorated in the senior colors apple green and cream, and a large bouquet of the senior class roses was placed upon a small table in the center of the hall.

About 7:30 o'clock the guests were then invited downstairs into the gymnasium which had been converted into a beautiful bower. Streamers of the junior colors, old rose and silver, made the overhead decorations while branches of spring blossoms formed arches over the small tables where the banquet was served. At each place there was a small corsage of sweet peas together with the prettily printed menu and program. As the guests were ushered into this dimly lighted bower, faint strains of music floated from a remote corner of the room. Music was furnished during the banquet and toasts were also given, with Mr. Coffin, a member of the faculty, acting as toastmaster, as follows: "Salutation" Earle Readmond; "Gratification," John E. Meek; "Anticipation," Florine Hood; "Realization," Lyle Power; "Compensation," Cathryn Bosley.

After the banquet a program was rendered by the Schmidt Trio Company of Newcastle, Ind. This consisted of whistling solos, violin and saxophone selections, readings, ukulele numbers, xylophone numbers and fancy dancing. At a very late hour the guests departed pronouncing the juniors to be excellent hosts and hostesses.

FUNERAL AT MAYS

The funeral services for John Stierley, a resident of Mays, will be held at the Presbyterian church at Mays Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, and burial will be made in the cemetery at Raleigh.

ATTACK CENTERS ON M'CRAY PAPER

Prosecution in Federal Court Trial
Lays Foundation to Show Many
Notes Were Forgeries

BANKERS ARE WITNESSES

Practically all Testify They Thought
Notes Were Those of Bonifide Companies

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23—The attack of the government in the trial of Governor McCray on trial in federal court on charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud, was concentrated today on the character of the paper offered by the governor as collateral for the loans or for discount to banks.

The prosecution was laying the foundation to introduce evidence intended to show that many of the notes did not represent legitimate business transactions and that in many cases the notes were forgeries.

Questions asked banker witnesses by District Attorney Elliott revealed that they did not know the "cattle paper" offered for discount by the governor was in reality his own obligation.

Repeatedly Elliott asked these questions:

"When you took this paper did you have any knowledge that Warren T. McCray was the sole owner of the farms whose names appeared on it?"

"Did you know the note was in fact his own obligation?"

"Did you have any knowledge that the note was executed by McCray and did not represent any actual transaction?"

In practically every instance witnesses answered in the negative, indicating they thought the names on the notes were those of bonifide companies, who had bought cattle from McCray.

Scores of additional letters written to banks by McCray were placed in evidence today by District Attorney Elliott.

Many of the letters written by the governor represented to the banks that he had on hand notes which he had taken for the sale of cattle and that he had carefully investigated the makers and found them financially responsible.

L. K. Tingley, cashier of the First National bank of Connersville, testified that in answer to letters from the governor his bank had discounted a $4,000 note signed "Hickory Island Stock Farm."

He said he had no knowledge that the governor owned the farm. The indebtedness had been cut in half in two payments, Tingley said.

More than 100 bankers were sworn in as witnesses for the government as court opened today.

The bankers were sworn in a

AWARDED JUDGEMENT AGAINST BILLINGS

Joseph Collier Given $1,606.70 And Costs Against Union Township
Farmer on Note

FEW NEW CASES ARE FILED

Evidence was heard in the circuit court this morning on a case on a note against George F. Billings, Union township farmer, who is reported to be missing, following the filing of several suits. In this case Joseph Collier was given judgment by default for the amount of $1,606.70 and costs.

A few other court cases have been filed, one being a complaint on a note, filed by Elvora Metzler against Harvey F. Brown and Carrie C. Brown, and the demand is for $375 judgment.

The Mohawk State Bank of Hancock county has brought suit against John Ed Laughlin, et al., in which the action is proceedings supplementary to execution, following a decree obtained in court recently by the plaintiff against the defendants. A petition has been filed by Mary O. Hill in which she asks that her name be changed to Mary O. Overman, and in the action no reason or cause is set out for the desired change of name.

Heavy Frost Not Believed to Have
Damaged Fruit Crop

A heavy frost was reported for last night, when the mercury dropped to 28 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, in charge of the government station at Mauney.

Although the frost was unusually heavy for this time of the year, it will be several days before the damage can be estimated. The question as to how far advanced fruit and other buds were, when the frost occurred, could not be definitely determined today. It is the belief, however, that the frost did not do serious damage to the fruit crop. Warmer weather is the prediction tonight, with partly cloudy skies.

Court—Finding For State in Paternity Proceedings

Business in Justice Stech's court continued in full blast again today, as the case of Ed Miller against John Thompson, a suit on an account, was not finished yesterday and went over until this afternoon.

In this case the two parties had several witnesses, and each party was contesting itemized statements in which each alleged the other person owed him. It was expected that the case would be completed this afternoon.

The case of Blackledge against Low, a suit for possession of real estate in Union township, was dismissed and the costs paid.

The court found for the relator in the case of the state on relation of Samantha Kanell against Fred Lucas, a paternity proceedings, and the defendant was bound over to the circuit court for trial, with bond being furnished in the sum of $500.

Four new cases were docketed for trial today by the court justice. The Indianapolis Wall Paper Company has sued A. C. Cooper on an account demanding $50. The case will be heard April 25, at 9 a. m.

The Mineral Supply Company has brought suit against Roscoe W. Waggoner, the complaint being on a note, demanding $30, and this case will be heard April 25 at 10 a. m.

TO BE PRESENTED FOR THE SCHOOL CHILDREN

"Daddy Long Legs" Will Have Premier Before Elementary Grades
Thursday Afternoon

RESERVED SEATS ON SALE

A special performance of "Daddy Long Legs," the Rushville high school senior class play, will be given Thursday afternoon at the Graham Annex auditorium for the school children of the city.

The children of the elementary grades have been among the most ardent boosters of the senior play, which will be presented at the auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings for the general public.

The reserved seat plat was opened up Tuesday and the advance reservations indicate considerable interest in the seniors' annual effort to offer a play.

The seniors are grateful, a representative of the class said today, to the school children for the support they have given and feel certain that their attendance Thursday afternoon will be an inspiration to the cast.

"Daddy Long Legs" is not new, having appeared first serially in a magazine, and later was dramatized with great success. Its human appeal and wholesome humor make it popular with audiences.

CASE PROCEEDS RAPIDLY

Evidence in Trial of Waldron Pastor
About Same as First One

Shelbyville, Ind., April 23—The prosecution proceeded rapidly today with presentation of evidence in the second trial of the Rev. Ulysses S. Johnson, pastor of the Waldron Baptist church.

Indications were that the case would go to the jury Friday or Saturday.

Testimony was much the same as that given in the first trial of the Rev. Mr. Johnson, which resulted in a hung jury.

J. O. Brisson, trustee of the Waldron church, appeared as a witness for the state. In the first trial he testified for the defense.

PINCHOT NOT ON DELEGATION

Harrisburg, Pa., April 23—Governor Pinchot and his issue of liquor law enforcement were snowed under in the Pennsylvania primary.

Pinchot was defeated for a place on the list of seven Republican delegates at large by Ralph B. Strassburger, millionaire owner of the Norristown Herald, who two days before election received full support of Republican organizations in Philadelphia, Allegheny and other large counties.

President Coolidge is now assured of the solid delegation of 79 votes from the Keystone state at the Cleveland convention.

For the first time in the memory of the oldest elector, Pennsylvania has failed to send its governor to the national convention of the party

TO PLAN FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Patriotic Organizations Invited to Participate in May 3 Meeting

Representatives of all patriotic organizations in the city are invited to attend the meeting of the G. A. R. on Saturday, May 3, to assist in making arrangements for Memorial Day plans. The Civil War veterans are rapidly decreasing in number, and there are not enough left to go forward with the plans as in the past and all patriotic organizations have been asked to lend their support and unite in decorating the graves and in arranging a suitable program May 30.

The meeting with the G. A. R. will be held at three o'clock in the Grand Army room of the court house a week from Saturday, and it is important that all societies send delegates.

HELD PASTORATES IN RUSH COUNTY

The Rev. James L. Brown, Veteran
Methodist Episcopal Church Pastor, Dies in Shelbyville

ORDAINED AT MANILLA IN 1891

Services Will be Held at Shelbyville
and Manilla Thursday Morning—
Burial at Benton Cemetery

The Rev. James L. Brown, pastor of the Main St. M. E. church in Shelbyville, and a former pastor of the Milroy, Arlington and Manilla M. E. churches, died Tuesday at his late residence in Shelbyville, following a several weeks illness with uraemic poisoning.

During the last thirty four years of the Rev. Mr. Brown had been in the ministry, and on several occasions conducted revival services and evangelistic campaigns in all parts of the state. He had served in many charges and received the appointment to the Shelbyville charge at the last M. E. conference.

He was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, on December 21, 1851, and at the time of his death he was 72 years old. In 1866 he moved to Shelby county with his parents, taking up residence near Manilla. Here he completed his education and became a teacher in the public schools in Warren county, Illinois. In 1880 he was elected Sheriff of Shelby county serving two years, and in 1890 he entered the ministry.

He was ordained at the Manilla quarterly conference by the Rev. Mr. Sargent in 1891 and was appointed to assist the Rev. Thomas Ayers in ministerial work at Waldron, Winchester, Geneva, Manilla and Arlington. Later he was appointed to the Milroy Circuit to assist the Rev. Mr. Hester and later was sent to Clarksville for his first charge. After serving a year at Metamora he left that charge to enter the evangelistic field. After two years of this work he returned to Metamora and the next several years he served at Falmouth, Laurel, St. Paul, Winchester, Clarksville and his last charge at Shelbyville.

The Rev. Brown is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Effie Linville of Anderson, Ind.; two sons, Murdock Brown of Union township, Shelby county, and the Rev. C. C. Brown of Laurel; sixteen grandchildren and five great grand children. His wife preceded him in death two years ago. Funeral services will be held at nine o'clock Thursday morning at the Main St. M. E. church in Shelbyville with the Rev. E. H. Boldre, the Rev. L. C. Murr, the Rev. R. O. Pearson and Rev. Mr. Burkher, pastors of the M. E. churches in the Shelbyville community, officiating. The body will then be taken to the Manilla M. E. church where services will be held at eleven o'clock in charge of the Rev. John Sewell. Burial will be made in Benton cemetery.

E. B. POUNDSTONE FUNERAL

The funeral services for E. B. Poundstone, who died early Tuesday morning at his home, 705 North Harrison street, will be held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the St. Paul's M. E. church in charge of the Rev. H. W. Hargrett, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the late residence to view the remains up until the hour of the funeral.

ORGANIZATION IS COMPLETED HERE

Township Chairmen and Women Precinct Chairmen of Coolidge-For-
President Campaign Appointed

PREPARATION FOR PRIMARY

Little Evidence of Approaching Vote,
Although County Candidates Are
Making Canvass

Although President Coolidge is not expected to have much opposition in the Indiana primary election, which will be held Tuesday, May 6, organizations are being perfected in each county of the state, and Russell Tittsworth, Rush county manager of the Coolidge-For-President campaign, today announced that his organization had been completed.

He has appointed a man chairman for each township and Miss Lena Buell, who was selected as woman county chairman, has announced the selection of a Coolidge woman manager in each precinct of the county.

Mr. Tittsworth has a supply of Coolidge buttons, pictures and literature in his office at the Miller law building and will be glad to supply any who will call for them.

Although the primary is not far away, very few manifestations of the approaching vote are apparent. Public meetings have been few and far between, but candidates for places on the county tickets have been making a diligent canvass.

Interest in the primary, outside of the county races, centers in the gubernatorial battle on both tickets, in Indiana. Unlike the contest four years ago, very little interest is being taken in the presidential contest for delegates, in view of the fact that Senator Johnson of California, who is Coolidge's only opponent in Indiana, is not offering much opposition.

Mr. Tittsworth announced today that he had appointed the following township chairmen; Robert E. Mansfield, Rushville; Hal Green, Jackson; Fred A. Bills, Washington; J. Blaine Reeve, Noble; Lloyd A. Wagoner, Orange; John T. Bowles, Center; Edgar Thomas, Anderson; Lee H. Massey, Posey; Jesse Henley, Ripley; Thomas K. Mull, Walker; Vincent Gray, Union; George T. Keisinger, Richland.

The women precinct chairmen named are as follows:

Ripley—No. 1, Mrs. R. H. Hill, Carthage; No. 2, Mrs. Daisy Manche, Carthage; No. 3, Mrs. Leona B. Ball, Carthage.

Posey—No. 1, Mrs. Lettie Woods, Arlington; No. 2, Mrs. N. R. Farlow, Arlington.

Walker—No. 1, Mrs. Alba Hurst, Rushville, R. 5; No. 2, Amy E. Fox, Manilla.

DOORS OF ASYLUM ARE OPENED TO HARRY THAW

After Period of 7 Years Incarceration in Mad House, He is Judged
Sane by a Jury

OPPONENTS TO TAKE APPEAL

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Philadelphia, April 23—Once more the doors of the asylum swing open for Harry Kendall Thaw.

After a period of seven years incarceration in a Philadelphia mad house, Thaw has been adjudged sane by a jury of his peers and probably soon will be free.

The jury that heard the six day trial of his petition for release from Kirkbride's asylum was out for nearly seven hours late Tuesday before they returned with their verdict for the millionaire plaintiff.

Notice of motion of appeal for a new trial was immediately given by parties opposing freedom for Thaw and this technicality will slightly delay complete freedom for Harry.

The first act of the eccentric millionaire who has seven times been found insane and now thrice sane since he shot Stanford White to death on Madison Square Garden roof 18 years ago will be to clear away the one criminal charge pending against him, a New York indictment for perverted assault upon young Frederick Gump of Kansas City.

ATTACK CENTERS ON McCRAE PAPER
group. They comprised the bulk of the court room crowd.
In rapid succession, District Attorney called the banker witnesses to the stand and quizzed them briefly on their loans to McCray and his efforts to get them to discount "cattle paper" for him.
Witnesses were subjected to little cross examination by attorneys for McCray. The defense was apparently preparing to rely upon the theory that the governor did not intend to commit a fraud in his negotiations with the banks.
Whenever possible, James Noel, attorney for McCray, attempted to bring out that the original indebtedness of the governor to the bank had been reduced or wiped out.
This was taken to be the foundation for an argument that the intent to commit a fraud was lacking.
District Attorney Elliott introduced, in evidence correspondence between the governor and the Peoples' State Bank of Evansville, which had been identified Tuesday by M. Schaefer, assistant cashier of the bank.
The correspondence showed that the bank had received a circular letter from McCray offering "good cattle paper" and had discounted two personal notes for the governor, each for $5,000. As collateral for the loans, McCray gave notes of the A. E. Herriman Co. and H. A. Rinehart & Co.
According to the correspondence, McCray represented the Rinehart company as being worth "at least $50,000" and the Herriman company as being worth $80,000.
H. A. Kohl, cashier of the Citizens' Bank of Letz, Ind., said his bank holds two notes of $5,000 each signed by McCray.
F. B. Bernard, president of the Merchants' National Bank at Muncie, said McCray's "circular letters" resulted in a loan of $5,000 on a personal note.
From each banker District Attorney Elliott obtained a story of the negotiations leading up to the discounting of McCray paper that varied only in minor details from the story of preceding bankers.
McCray wrote letters to bankers, according to the testimony, informing them he had a number of cattle notes taken for the sale of fine cattle.
The McCray letters to the bankers, declared the notes were simply secured. In most cases the notes were made payable to the governor and indorsed by him.
If the bank sought further information as to the security for the paper, it was revealed that McCray sent out financial statements in which indicated his worth was nearly $1,000,000 and that of his customers whose names appeared on the cattle notes from $50,000 to $150,000.
Some of the bankers said they accepted the McCray paper on promise of getting a deposit of state funds and others admitted that political friendship for the Governor led them to accept the paper without investigation.
Some of the letters indicated the banks were anxious to get some of McCray's paper.
A letter from the officials of the state bank at Grand View said: "We are indeed sorry that owing to local demands we are unable to take more than $5,000 of your paper. Perhaps after the harvest time when local demand has eased up, we can take more."
John W. Johnson, of the Peoples State Bank at Patriot, Ind., indicated that work on a road near Patriot by the state highway commission had figured in the bank's transactions with McCray.
In a letter to McCray consenting to the renewal of a loan, Johnson urged McCray to have the state highway commission start work immediately on the highway.
McCray at one time was indebted to the Chicago Trust company to the extent of $100,000 on his personal notes, according to Max Sinder, vice president of the Chicago bank.
Gilbert A. Reek, treasurer of the Bank's Trust and Savings company of Chicago, said McCray had also borrowed $100,000 from his bank at one time.

The Constitution

The national oratorical contest for high schools and secondary schools, which is being held in all parts of the United States, beginning with county contests and progressing into district, territorial, state and zone contests, until the winner is eventually selected in a final event in Washington, is proving of value not alone to the contestants, who are limited to a discussion of the constitution, but to those who have had an opportunity of hearing the orations.

Anything that arouses interest in or a desire to study the constitution of the United States is commendable.

The entrants in the contest, in preparing their orations, no doubt had some difficulty in interpreting the basic law of the land.

They found that the constitution provides for three branches of government—legislative, judicial and executive. The authority of each is clearly defined.

But if they have been following the news from Washington, they probably concluded that the three branches of government now are investigative, judicial and executive.

They doubtless recalled that one school of thought advocates a law which will give congress authority to pass legislation even though it is declared unconstitutional by the United States supreme court.

The youthful orators were probably very much confused trying to square up the terms of the constitution with the trend of affairs in the present day.

But they expounded the constitution, its glorious success in piloting a republic through dangerous waters for nearly a century and a half, and its value as an ever-present, dependable friend in perilous times.

The young students will have performed a very valuable service if they influence any considerable number of people to study the constitution and to come to some appreciation of the part it has had in making this the greatest nation in the world.

Wets Die Hard

The wets are doing hard. Their battle to nullify the Volstead act, and eventually the eighteenth amendment, is now centered in congress where there are no less than fifty-nine bills pending.

The wets are still hiding behind the smoke screen of light wines and beer. They are hoping against hope that they can gain this entering wedge. The problem confronting them is to

Paid Fancy Prices

"I paid an international authority on diseases of the stomach $1,500 and he didn't do me five cents' worth of good. I have been to various spas in Europe, as well as this country and have spent fully $30,000 fruitlessly in search of a cure for my stomach trouble. Naturally I lost faith in any remedy for my case. My wife's brother had taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and praised it so highly that I tried it and am now entirely rid of that trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NRA Service, 3000 N. Main

WASHINGTON, D. C., Cal Coolidge is no man. The "great national game" of baseball leaves him cold.

That was evident to all present on the occasion of the opening of the American League season at the Washington ball park.

Coolidge, with the tradition that the first ball of the first game in Washington must be tossed out by the president. But he didn't want an expression and a gesture that indicated the job was the most distasteful he had yet been called upon to perform as chief executive.

If hurling a horseshoe sphere out into a ball park, while a crazy mob of screaming lunatics looks on, was a daily part of the presidential routine, well, well, but Calvin Coolidge wouldn't run for reelection.

Coolidge's discomfort as he stood up to throw the ball was plain. He not only didn't like it, he didn't even smile.

He went up to the mound rather reluctantly, protesting that he had to be gone through with, but which he didn't enjoy or even approve.

Instead of tossing the ball out snappily, he sort of pushed it away from him with an overhand gesture, much as Caesar might have spurned the crown.

And then, with the home team winning, "Cal up and left in the middle of the third inning."

THOUGH Coolidge may not warm to baseball, he does seem to be onto the curves of that other great national pastime, politics. Already his campaign managers claim to have about 500 of the necessary 555 delegates to the Republican convention roped and tied.

So cocksure are his boosters of a walkaway for him at Cleveland that they are suggesting having the president drop in on the convention in person, receive direct be able to delude enough people into believing that light wines and beer would be an improvement over the present "bone dry" law.

Beer advocates claim that they have not placed all their eggs in one basket, so that if all of their fifty-nine bills are unfavorably reported by congressional committees, they will still have a card to play.

The new rules of the House provide that if a measure is not favorably reported by a committee, it may be brought upon the floor by petition. Signatures of 150 members are necessary to force a committee to discharge bills.

Wet congressmen admit they have little chance in the House judiciary committee and they are pinning their faith to the new House rule.

In the meantime, dries should be alert, for it's barely possible that wets are not making public all of their battle maneuvers.

Two Party Government

Every voter in the country should find sufficient attraction in one or the other of the two major parties to command his support.

Two-party government is the logical development of popular government—a party of administration and a party of opposition. Many members of each party may differ more or less with the policy platform of their organizations, but that is not sufficient reason for forming a third party.

Carried to its conclusion, such a course would mean the complete disintegration of all parties. Few men think alike on every topic, hence, applying the third party theory, there is no chance of an organization strong enough to be felt in national affairs.

Without compromise on the part of everyone our economic structure would soon give way to anarchy.

Such a procedure, however, doesn't seem quite to fit with the Coolidge character. It would be rather too spectacular, too great a departure from custom and precedent. Doubtless it might be good strategy, it might dazzle him as less "cautions" and "careful" than he has often been pictured, might humiliate him and help start the battle with a bang, but our guess is Coolidge will receive the news of his nomination through some reports, relayed to the executive office.

POTENTIALLY inclined persons are convinced that the action of Congress in passing the Japanese exclusion act just which it did proves conclusively that our legislators have no souls.

The very day the vote was taken which precipitated all the discussion of "grave consequences" the Japanese cherry trees along the Spuytenwyck and around the tidal basins have been in bloom.

The cherry trees, from the mountains to the coast, are in bloom, and have done more than any other single thing to beautify the national capital. Their masses of delicate pink blossoms make a veritable fairyland of the capital in springtime.

Perhaps the exclusion act was all right. Perhaps it was proper that it should be passed.

But to pass it in cherry blossom time, when the beauty and fragrance of Japan's gift to us was in full bloom, was a very bad invitation to "forget the cherry trees" and to see the exclusion act as a nation of materialists, shorts of souls and sentiment.

NEWSY GOSSIP IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Spring Training Money Maker

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 23—Support of the major league exhibition games was so generous in the south this spring that the magnates, finding such business may be wondering, "how long has this been going on?"

The idea of arranging a few games during the training season between clubs situated in the same locality was prompted by the desire to help pay the expenses of getting old soup bones warm and in finding out how many of the scouts were wrong in picking phenoms from the minors.

The opportunity of seeing some of the big league stars in the flesh right in their own backyard proved so attractive to the customers in the southern and middle-western town that the magnates found they could not only get in the clear on their training camp expenses, but that they had the opportunity of making money by parading their athletes in unofficial combat.

Recently in this column it was suggested that the success of the haphazard venture into new fields would result in an organized effort to make a big thing out of spring baseball and might eventually reach a stage where the regular championship schedule would be opened in the south and played on an itinerant schedule until the weather was settled sufficiently to open the parks of the regular league schedules.

John A. Heydler, president of the National League, commenting on the subject a few days ago, said it was possible that the regular season might be extended at some time in the future to provide for regular games in the south, but that it was improbable.

He suggested, however, that the major league club owners were certain to organize a better schedule of southern games next spring and to make more serious efforts to give the southern fans a real major league baseball. It is possible, he said, that the major league club owners may get together next winter and draw up a real schedule for the spring games.

It is Mr. Heydler's idea that a real schedule can be arranged, because so many permanent training camps are being established by the magnate in Florida, and for the reason that these camps are being pitched in groups where traveling expenses can be reduced to a minimum.

The idea that some of the smaller cities might become fed up on exhibition baseball was not borne out this year, when, in several instances, the same cities were visited by three and four "sets" of touring teams. The games all drew generous support.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Sherry Smith. The veteran pitcher singled in the tenth inning with two down and drove in the run that beat the White Sox, 7 to 6.

Two errors by Sam Rice let in four runs and helped the Yanks beat the Senators 6 to 3.

Six runs scored in the fourth inning on a triple with the bases filled, a double and a homer gave the Pirates six runs and a 10 to 7 victory over the Cards. Hornsby got two homers.

Three runs scored on a rally in the fifth inning gave the Reds a 3 to 2 victory over the Cubs.

Behind the tight pitching of Earl Whitehill, Detroit's sensational young pitcher, the Tigers beat the Browns 8 to 4.

Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck. How well the big stars of baseball know this.

And in merchandising as in baseball, big success is scored only by deserving it. A product, too, must "deliver the goods."

GIANTS, TIGERS SETTING THE PACE

New York, April 23—McGraw's Giants and the Detroit Tigers are now setting the pace in the major league pennant race. Both clubs are in first place after having won five out of their six games.

The Giants have been playing the best ball in the National League and they have been getting all the breaks. Four of their five games were won by rallies in the ninth which goes to show that the champions are having no easy time against eastern opposition that is none too formidable.

Fine pitching and the timely hitting for which the club has always been noted, have helped the Detroit Tigers get out in front in the American league. Ty Cobb seems to have picked up one of the best pitchers in the business in young Earl Whitehill. It was this youngster who was mostly responsible for the success of the Tigers in finishing second last year.

Before the season started it was reported that Rigney, the young Detroit shortstop, had developed a bad hip and that he would be unable to play this season. If the form that he has been showing so far is the result of a bad hip, Cobb probably wishes that he had two of them.

The Tigers were also judged to be weak at second base, where the veteran Del Pratt worked last season. Pratt has been playing the greatest game of his career this season, but he may slump before the mid-season has been passed.

McGraw is having all the breaks with the Giants. He has a game ball club that is full of fight but they can't go on forever knocking off the ball games in the ninth inning. When they get the strong western clubs, they will have to do more than they have been doing against the Robins and the Braves.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Compton, will go to Laurel, Ind., this afternoon where she will give a group of readings and musical monologues before the Parent-Teachers meeting this evening.

Mrs. Eunice Moor, who is probably Rushville's oldest woman resident will celebrate the 93d anniversary of her birth Friday, at her home, 608 North Main street, with an informal reception, and all of her friends are invited to call during the afternoon.

The Delphian Society will meet Friday afternoon promptly at 2:30 o'clock at the Elks club rooms. All members are urged to come as several matters will be discussed at this time.

Mrs. Jesse Logan was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Ladies Aid Society of the First United Presbyterian church at her home in West Third street. Following the regular business meeting the ladies spent the remainder of the afternoon sewing.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority charity card party will be held Thursday afternoon at the Elks club rooms and all those who have not made their reservations are urged to call Miss Wyatt at 1261 or Miss Haydon at 1477 immediately. Bridge and Five Hundred will be played.

Mrs. Ed Beer, matron, Mrs. Ollie Siler, assistant matron, Mrs. J. P. Gaffin, chaplain, Verl Beout, worthy patron, Mrs. Charles Newhouse of the Martha Poe Chapter, No. 143 O. E. S. have gone to Indianapolis to attend the meeting of the Indiana Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held at the Masonic Temple.

Thirty, including seven guests, were present for the Always Present Class meeting held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, Jr., living southwest of the city, with Mrs. Forrest Moore as the hostess. At 6:30 o'clock a bountiful pitch-in supper was served and enjoyed by all present. During the business session plans were made for a benefit show to be given at the Castle theatre, May 21 and 22, entitled "The Man From Brodneys", a screen adaptation from the book of George Barr McCutcheon. The next meeting will be held May 6, the place not decided upon.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Sunday school department of the church. The state vice president, Mrs. J. B. Pearsey of Indianapolis and the district superintendent, Mrs. W. B. Barker of Connersville, will be present for the meeting. Mrs. John P. Frazee, Jr., will have charge of the Bible study and Miss Florine Gronier will sing. The Golden Jubilee pledges will be accepted at this time.

Mrs. Florence Abercrombie acted as leader of the meeting of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church Tuesday afternoon in the absence of the president, Mrs. Parrish. The devotional was given by Mrs. Myrtle Matlock and Miss Florine Gronier sang a group of solos accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Carl Overdorf. Her selections were "Dawn" and "Break of Day". The guests were entertained also with a group of readings by Miss Lucella Butler. Following the business meeting Mrs. C. E. Walden and Mrs. Carl Overdorf sang two duets being accompanied on the piano by Miss Brenda Kinsinger. A delightful social hour was held at the conclusion of the program in charge of Mrs. Overdorf's section, during which refreshments were served.

The Milroy junior-senior reception, which was given Saturday evening, April 19, at the school building, was one of the most unique and elaborate ever given here. Upon the arrival of the guests they were shown into small dressing rooms beautifully furnished and dimly lighted where they removed their wraps. They then assembled in the long hallway which was decorated in the senior colors apple green and cream, and a large bouquet of the senior class roses was placed upon a small table in the center of the hall.

About 7:30 o'clock the guests were then invited downstairs into the gymnasium which had been converted into a beautiful bower. Streamers of the junior colors, old rose and silver, made the overhead decorations while branches of spring blossoms formed arches over the small tables where the banquet was served. At each place there was a small corsage of sweet peas together with the prettily printed menu and program. As the guests were ushered into this dimly lighted bower, faint strains of music floated from a remote corner of the room. Music was furnished during the banquet and toasts were also given, with Mr. Coffin, a member of the faculty, acting as toastmaster, as follows: "Salutation" Earle Readmond; "Gratification," John E. Meek; "Anticipation," Florine Hood; "Realization," Lyle Power; "Compensation," Cathryn Bosley.

After the banquet a program was rendered by the Schmidt Trio Company of Newcastle, Ind. This consisted of whistling solos, violin and saxophone selections, readings, ukulele numbers, xylophone numbers and fancy dancing. At a very late hour the guests departed pronouncing the juniors to be excellent hosts and hostesses.

FOUR GENERATIONS

Texas Lady Says Her Family Has Been Taking Theford's Black-Draught, When Needed, for Many Years.

Alto, Texas.—"We inherited the use of Black-Draught in our family," says Mrs. Mary Shuptrine, who lives near here on R. F. D. 2. "My grandmother was an old woman when she died about ten years ago, and she had been using it literally ever since I can remember. She gave it to her children and grandchildren for biliousness and stomach complaints, so when I went to housekeeping we just naturally used it, too."

"I give it to my children for a purgative whenever they need one, and we are never without it. Made into tea, it surely is fine. It's the best home remedy for headache and constipation I know of."

During over 80 years of its continued popularity, Black-Draught has become the standard liver medicine in many thousands of homes, where it has been found of great benefit in the treatment of constipation, biliousness, indigestion and other common liver, stomach and bowel complaints. Ten million packages of Black-Draught are now sold a year, as more and more people are learning of the value of this well-known remedy.

Insist on Theford's, the only genuine Black-Draught powdered liver medicine. At all dealers. NC-154

It is so tough and durable on floors, not showing heel marks or scratches from heavy furniture that everyone prefers it to any other varnish after they have once used it. It does not show brush marks or laps; is absolutely not affected either by hot or cold water. It has a beautiful enough gloss to be used on the finest furniture, even a piano or victoria. It comes in clear and eight colors including oaks, mahogany, walnut, etc. The coloring is different from other varnishes, stronger, clearer and as it never settles in the can it eliminates getting streaks and different have ever used.

TODAY OBSERVED AS A DAY OF FASTING

Today was observed as a Day of Fasting and prayer at the New Salem Methodist Protestant church. The evangelistic meetings will continue until and including Sunday.

"The Great White Throne Judgment" was the subject of the message by Evangelist J. C. McCaslin on Tuesday evening. "I saw the dead, small and great stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the book according to their works; and whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire," was the text taken from Rev. 20:11-15.

The evangelist spoke in part as follows: "The Word of God is true from beginning to end. In love God warns us of sin and its consequences. He tells the truth about the judgment and the lake of fire."

God says there is a place prepared for the Devil and his angels. According to the word of God the lake of fire, which is the second death, is a literal reality. Men blot their own names out of the book of life by unbelief and by rejecting Christ as a personal Saviour. As a logical and Biblical consequence they shall be compelled to endure the conscious and everlasting torments of the damned in the lake of fire. "He that believeth not is condemned already," according to John 3:18. In Revelation 21:8, we are told about the kind of people who will be tormented for all eternity: the fearful, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, whoremongers, sorcerers, idolaters and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death."

Sermon subjects for the remainder of the week will be as follows: Wednesday, "Safety First;" Thursday, "Seven Heartsearching Bible Questions;" Friday, "The Most Important Question Any Man Ever Asked or Answered;" Saturday, "Moral Insanity;" Sunday "The Significance of Church Membership;" Sunday afternoon, "Mother, Home and Heaven;" Sunday evening "The Final Decision and the Eternal Destiny."

Center Township Monday evening with a six o'clock dinner. The evening was spent socially with music, games and contests.

Carl Sterley and family and Ott Sterley of Nebraska were called here Monday on account of the death of their father, John Sterley.

Miss Elvena Goode was the guest of Miss Lillian Allison at Arlington over the week end.
